

ANZSPM Research Study Promotion Request

Policy

In line with ANZSPM’s strategic initiatives to promote research and to support its members, ANZSPM supports the distribution of requests for participation in research studies which are relevant to palliative medicine, which further the ANZSPM Purpose to improve health outcomes for every person with a life limiting illness living in Australia and New Zealand, and which deliver against its Mission to improve health outcomes by working with and influencing the system and community around the person with a life-limiting illness.

Application

Requests should be made on the designated ANZSPM Research Study Promotion Request Form and be accompanied by any associated documentation as outlined on the Form.

Applicant Agreement

The applicant agrees to:

1. acknowledge ANZSPM’s cooperation in distributing the research study participation request
2. provide a synopsis of results of the research for publication on ANZSPM website/publications (where possible, subject to any copyright limitations)
3. recognise that ANZSPM is under no obligation to distribute research study requests received.
